Weekly Memory Verse: "...walk in a manner worthy of the God who calls you into His own Kingdom and glory." I Thess 2:12

How easy or hard is it for you to act gently with "fond affection" for the people who are in our culture who do not know Christ?

The picture of a mother nursing her infant child is one of the most powerful images in the world. What ideas does it conjure up for you and how do they apply to our treatment of a lost world?

What picture does the father in this passage conjure up for you? Are they positive or negative images? How are they the same or different from your own experience with your father?

What do you think it means to live in a "manner worthy of the God who calls you into His own Kingdom and glory"?
