Discussion Questions

Weekly Memory Verse: "Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, so that you may prove what the will of God is, that which is good and acceptable and perfect." Romans 12:2

In what areas of your life have you grown content and not hungry for God to increasingly display His glory in you?

Read psalm 42:1-2. Does this describe your heart or your life? As an exercise rewrite these two verses to reflect the REAL thoughts of your own life. How do your thoughts compare to the psalmists?

How is it different to see our salvation as a birth certificate rather than a passport?

Read Phil 3:12-14 and 2 Cor 11:23-30. Discuss Paul's life and sacrifice in light of his absolute belief that he was far from what God was calling him to be.

How are you running? How are you following? How are you growing ?
