How does an intrinsic desire for status in the human heart affect you in your service and place in the church? Where does your heart seek the higher seat at the table?

Where does legalism in the church overshadow the most important law of loving God with all our heart, soul, and strength?

Have you ever found yourself jockeying for position with the people around you at work, play or church?

How does Paul express the new Kingdom in Colossians 3:10-11 and Galatians 3:27-29? How does this affect you as you try to live it out?

Think about Jesus' invitation to the "crippled, the lame, and the blind" to the dinner party. How are we expected to live as Christians in generosity that transcends ideas of personal profit?

How is the parable of chapter 14:16-24 related to the teaching of Jesus in chapter 13:22-35?
