

Habakkuk: Trusting God in Troubled Times
Pt 2 – The Righteous Shall Live by His Faith
Habakkuk 1:12 – 2:20

Habakkuk's _____ is evident v.12

The Question v.13-17

- How can you use a really wicked nation to correct a merely _____ nation

Keep your _____ Habakkuk v.1-6a

A _____ from the victims

- Woe to the person or nation who _____ what is not theirs
- Woe to the person or nation who stands on _____
- Woe to the person or nation who builds on _____ and bloodshed
- Woe to the person or nation who forces the _____ onto the lips of others
- Woe to the person or nation whose god is an _____

What can we learn

- In times of trouble _____ v.4
- In times of trouble _____ v.3,14
- In times of trouble _____ v20

My Response:

Habakkuk: Trusting God in Troubled Times
Pt 2 – The Righteous Shall Live by His Faith
Habakkuk 1:12 – 2:20

Discussion Questions

Weekly Memory Verse: “The righteous man shall live by his faith” Habakkuk 2:4b

How is your faith evident when you see evil and injustice at work in the world around you? Do we respond the same as those who do not have faith in God?

How can you “stand your post” when you don’t understand how or why God is working the way He does?

How do the woes upon Babylon encourage you when we face troubled times with wars and rumors of wars all around us?

Read 2 Corinthians 5. Do you see evidence that Paul is drawing from this passage in Habakkuk to make a present day statement? What would he say to you today?

How is the inevitable and written in stone promise of God that Jesus is returning to set all things right a help when you are facing troubled times?

How can you take some present trouble you or we are facing and simply be “silent before Him” as the Lord remains in His holy temple?