Discussion Questions

Take time to discuss the work of God behind the scenes to free Israel and return them to Himself while our supposed hero is failing in his call and life. What does God's grace look like?

How does sin work from the inside out to destroy our lives, our dreams and the calling of God for each one of us?

What could have happened if Samson had kept his vow and lived out the plan of God in his life? Is it enough to be a tool instead of a son/daughter?

What does the answer of God in giving Samson water reveal about the heart of God even when we are living in brokenness?

Read I Samuel 25:1. Compare the death of Samuel and the death of Samson. What does this say about the consequences of sin in this life (not even to mention eternity)?

How do you see your own life as part of the overarching story of God and His people? What role are you playing? Are you more like Samuel or Samson and why?
