Discussion Questions

Think about these shepherds who were tending sheep in the same fields that David worked in so many years before. How is appropriate that God chose these men to hear the news about David’s descendent coming to establish His kingdom?

How would you feel if the glory of God suddenly broke around you shining like the sun? What would make you afraid and what would make you confident?

Without Christ to present you “holy, blameless and without reproach” (Colossians 1:21-23) how would you feel in the presence of God?

How are you proclaiming the “good news” today to a lost world?

When we meet God face to face through His Son how is the Shekinah glory of God transferred to the inside of us? Read Exodus 34:29-35. How is this different in the Day of the Lord when Holy Spirit inhabits His people?
