Weekly Memory Verse: "Blessed are the eyes that see the things you see" Luke 10:23

How hard or easy is it for you to be anonymous as you serve the Lord? Do you want, need, or crave acknowledgment for your work?

It's hard not to find our joy in service in the results. We rightfully get excited when things turn out well, we get a large attendance at our event, or we get a pat on the back. How is true joy in service found in no one knowing our name?

Read Zephaniah 3:17. Now read Luke 10:21. How is this not only a fulfillment of prophecy but the very expression of the heart of God over His followers?

Read 1 Peter 1:12. How do we take for granted the magnitude of the days in which we are living?

What should our response be to being a part of the work of God in the day of His favor?
