Weekly Memory Verse: For it was the Fathers good pleasure that all the fullness to dwell in Him
Col 1:19

In Jesus the fullness of God dwells and He is the exact image of the invisible God. Knowing this, how does this shape your reading of the Gospels as they lay out the life of Jesus?

How are we as image bearers (however imperfectly) to live so that people see God in us?

How does creation serve as the very foundation of our teaching on redemption and reconciliation through Christ?

We see the chaos developing in our world as people continue to reject the plan of God. How does this reflect eventual unraveling of this universe as God brings a new heaven and a new earth in the last days?

If Jesus is the head of the body (the church) how important is it that Jesus be the central theme of all we do here?

When you think about the redemption of your life and all that the enemy has stolen from you how does that reshape your idea of life here and life in heaven?
