Weekly Memory Verse: “You went forth for the salvation of Your people, for the salvation of Your anointed.” Habakkuk 3:13a

How does Habakkuk’s emotion flow through the lines of this poem? How do you see his heart revealed in it?

A W Tozer writes, “This is the day of magnification of slick personalities, and as we magnify men, we minimize God.” How is this true in the church today not only in personalities but in programming?

When we wait on God we find that He is more than enough when everything else is gone. Do you find this to be true in your own life? Can you explain where and how?

How have we made full fig trees, vines filled with grapes, abundant harvests and healthy animals our idols in 21st century Christianity. What happens to prosperity preaching when the troubled times come?

How is “exulting in the Lord”, and “rejoicing in God” a choice of faith not a product of circumstances?
