

The Gospel According to Luke
The Intertestamental Period
Galatians 4:1-7

Yom YHWH

400 Years of _____

The Fullness of _____

- _____ preparation
- _____ preparation
- _____ preparation
- _____ preparation

What can we learn?

My Response:

The Gospel According to Luke
The Intertestamental Period
Galatians 4:1-7

Weekly Memory Verse:

“But when the fullness of the time came, God sent forth His Son, born of a woman, born under the law that He might redeem those who were under the law...” Gal 4:7-8a

Discussion Questions

How do you feel when someone important to you doesn't talk to you for a long while? How might the people of God have felt during the 400 years when no prophets came to them?

How is the hope of the last prophets about the coming of Yom YHWH intended by God to stir up a passion for His coming? How might the silence have built the excitement and passion?

Have you ever had a time when God seemed to be silent in your life even when you were praying for answers? What might God have been doing during those times to prepare you for the answer?

When you think about the preparations God made for the coming of His Messiah what hope do you see in the world that He is preparing us for His return?

Read Revelation 21-22. How might the closing voice of the New Testament be preparing us for Christ's return in the same way that Malachi prepared the way for His coming?