Weekly Memory Verse: “Why do you call me Lord, Lord, and do not do what I say?” Luke 6:46

How would you respond to a person who is cheating on his wife and says to you when confronted, “The bible says you can’t judge me!”?

How is being an advocate for “tax collectors and sinners” different from being a judge? What judgment is required? How does mercy become advocacy?

How is being an advocate for broken people who are in bondage to sin a simple act of obedience to our Rabbi?

Examine the fruit of your life, the words of your mouth, your treatment of others over the last week. What kind of fruit have you evidenced?

“A disciple is not above his teacher; but everyone when he has been fully trained will be like his teacher.” In what ways is your life like Jesus – in what ways does it need more learning?

Is your foundation strong enough to withstand the fires of persecution and pain? How has our consumer mindset crippled our effectiveness in a kingdom under siege?
