I Thess 5:19-21

Read James 1:21-24. How does the scripture act as a mirror showing us who we really are rather than who we think we are?

Read Psalm 139. Reread verses 23-24. How does this appeal to God from David show that the only TRUE picture of us is the one that God sees?

What places may you be hanging around the edges of God’s will for your life instead of going deep to the center of His will?

Which of the three areas that we most often quench the Spirits work is most true of your life? How might you pray for God to change that?

My Response:

How can we gain more from the teachings of God as He brings them to us week after week?
