Discussion Questions

Weekly Memory Verse: We give thanks to God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you... Col 1:3

What does it say to a pagan world when the life of the redeemed looks no different than the lives of everyone else?

How different are we called to be as we live as the redeemed of God in a pagan world? (Read Matt 5:16; 19:16-22; 22:37-40; 23:8-12; 25:34-40)

As you think about having a compelling faith (one that drives your life choices) how is your world view different than others?

When you think about compassionate love for other Christians how does this affect your relationships in the church?

How is hope the one thing that the world cannot fabricate without Jesus?

How is the gospel changing your life today?

Is your hope and faith contagious? Has anyone caught it from you? How might you be bolder in sharing this faith?
