

Zechariah: Return to Me
In That Day Pt 1
Zechariah 12:1-9

The Author of the Oracle v.1

- Stretches out _____
- Lays the _____ of the earth
- Forms the _____

I will make Jerusalem v.2-9

- A Cup of _____ v.2 (Jer 25:15-16, Is 51:21-23)
- A _____ for all the peoples (Dan 2:45, Is 28:16, Luke 20:17)
- A _____ among pieces of wood

My Response:

---

---

---

---

Zechariah: Return to Me
In That Day Pt 1
Zechariah 12:1-9

Weekly Memory Verse: “Thus declares the Lord who stretches out the heavens, lays the foundation of the earth, and forms the spirit of man within him...” Zech 12:1b

Discussion Questions

God identifies Himself as both creator and sustainer of the world in which we live in verse 1. How does this comfort you when you think about all the bizarre and fatalistic claims of climate change activists?

In spite of God’s perfect control over the world He created why is it incumbent on us to protect the environment in which we live?
Gen 1:26-30

How are the sovereignty of God over His creation and the plans He has made for it both a comfort and a challenge to you?

How is the church of Christ a cup of reeling to the unbelieving in our community and our world?

How has the heavy stone of Christianity weathered the storms of persecution in our world? Does this help you face an uncertain future?

Are you a firepot among wood and a torch among sheaves as you stand in your faith today?